

A TRADITIONAL JAPANESE TEA CEREMONY

PALAZZO POLIGNAC AND SANDRA FLAMAND
ARE PLEASED TO INVITE YOU AT A JAPANESE TEA CEREMONY
ON THURSDAY 29TH OF AUGUST AT 6:00 PM
MASTER OF CEREMONY: TORU OTA
The ceremony will finish at 8:00pm

PALAZZO CONTARINI POLIGNAC – MAGAZZINO GRAND CANAL
870 DORSODURO 30123 VENEZIA

Toru Ota san is an important tea-ceremony Master in Kyoto. He belongs to the very well known Urasenke School. He is Doctor of history of tea ceremony, professor of the traditional Japanese Culture at the Kyoto University and writer of many books about tea ceremony. He usually appears in TV. He is director of the Company Oimatsu confectioner of “wagashi” (Japanese pastry), and Director of the Kodokan Foundation dedicated to the Japanese traditional art.

Aldo Tollini is a professor of classic Japanese culture at Ca' Foscari University and author of many books about Buddhism as well as Tea Ceremony in Japan, published by Einaudi.

The ceremony will start with a short conference on the Japanese tea ceremony tradition by Professor Aldo Tollini. In attached, a brief introductory text.

The number of places is limited to 20 participants.
Please confirm before the 25 of August at sandra@spflamand.fr